

I have the right to refuse calls and not be disturb by telemarketers. The program is working and I like it. Do not ban this law because it feels good not to get these calls ever. I do not want to be called by strangers offering anything or asking to take a survey.